Third itning.

Second inning.

Chance struck out and Tinker stood still while Ames wave him the same (c.se. Evers got free passage to larst and scampered to third on Casey's beautiful line single to right. Casey got second on a passed ball, and a wild pitch allowed Evers to come home in a trot, while Casey took third. O'Neill then struck out. ONE RUN.

Dallen led off this chapter with a clean single to left but could not advance on Devlin's pop to Tinker. Dahlen stole second. Gilbert lifted an easy loop to Skagle. Evers made a great stop of Bowerman's hard grounder and was loudly applauded as he came back to the bench. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning. bert threw out Chance, and Browne mometer dropped four degrees in a minutes. Nine deaths from heat been reported when the storm arden are specified in the relief is only temporary. If the sellef is only temporary, it showers do not break a hot wave there isn't a big storm in sight. Topkers will have to perspire and it until a baby tornado comes out the West or a refrigerated gale.

Sixth Inning. Gilbert got Maloney's hot grounder, and Schulte went out on strikes. Chance drew a base on balls, but Tinker lifted a high foul to McGann. NO RUNS.

Dahlen sot first by the easy route and came home in a canter ahead of Devlin on a long drive to deep cents—for a complete circuit of the bases. Gilbert flied to Slagle. Bowerman drove a fly to Schulte. Ames was counted out. TWO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Evers high fly fell to Meries, and Casey struck out. O'Nelli filed out to Donlin. NO RUNS.

Lundgren wein in to pitch for Chicago. Browne filed to Maloney. Donlin drew a pass. McGann filed to Casey. Mertes drove a liner to Slagle. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning. Lundgren was a vebtim to Browne. Slagle drove one down the third-base line for two bases. Majoney was out via Gilbert and McGann. Schulte went the same route. NO RUNS.

Dahlen was passed, but was forced on Devilin's bunt in front of the plate. Gilbert best out a slew one to the infield. Bowerman lined to Tinker, who touched second and completed a brill-tant double play. NO RUNS.

DETROIT, Mich., July 13.—With all kinds of enthusiasm and the spirit of chase was hit in the eye at practice batting to the outfield. He dropped un-conscious and did not recover for some time. The physician who examined him said that he could find no bones broken, but the inflammation was such that he was not certain. Jack Doyle played Schaefer hoisted to Williame. Chesbro fielded an easy rap of Lindsay, and Drill took the count on a roller that W. Slams soized. NO RUNS. Yeager hit a fierce one that O'Leary Williams seized. NO RUNS.

Yeager hit a fierce one that O'Leary stopped, but could not throw accurately. Fultz waited the limit and with two on bases and none out it looked good for Grif. Both rutnners advanced on Doyle's sacrifice to Mullin, and it was up to Kid McGuire. Taking a mighty chance Yeager started home as Mullin raised his arm and the pitch going wild both he and Fultz scored. O'Leary retired McGuire. Chesbro flied to Crawford, TWO RUNS.

Third inning. Chesbro lost control for Mullin's benefit, but he was quickly forzet by Cooley, Chesbro to Elberfold. Chesbro threw badly to Elberfold off O'Leary's fielders' choice, leaving both runners safe. Williams threw McIntyre out. Crawford filed to Conroy. NO RUNS. Conroy got a bad start with a fly to Schaefer. Coughlin nailed Keeler after a fumble. Mullin handled a little joit from Elberfeld. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning. Coughlin lined to Elberfeld sailed under a hoist from Schaefer. Chesbro handled Lindsay's bunt. NO RUNS.

Mullin captured Williams's hot bounder. Yeager cracked a beautiful fly in right, bu' Crawford was there, too. After ten minutes' interruption, caused by a dispute over Detroit and New York balls that had been wet with licorice, Fultz filed to McIntyre. NO RUNS.
